

Israeli Association of Family Physicians

Israeli society for LGBT+ medicine

Vasco da Gama Movement

Dear colleagues,

The Israeli circle of residents and junior FPs in Israel is happy to invite you to a mini-exchange program in Tel-Aviv during March, 2018.

This mini-exchange program will be the first to carry the rainbow  colors, as it is held in TLV the "pink Capital of the Mediterranean" and organized with the help of the Israeli society for LGBT+ medicine.

Schedule:

- 18.3.18 Arrival to Tel-Aviv and making the way to your host area
  - 19.3.18 A day in an Israeli primary care clinic
  - 20.3.18 A visit to LGBT+ dedicated clinic in Tel-Aviv
  - 21.3.18 Participation in "Ben-Mayer" National conference of IAFP in Tel-Aviv
- we will have one hall with English-only sessions throughout the day

What's included in the program?

Entrance fee for "Ben-Mayer" conference

Welcome dinner in Tel-Aviv 20.3.18

What's not included in the program?

Flights, travel costs and accommodation*. Costs for other planned social activities are also not included.

*A few hosts will be able to offer accommodation but we can't guarantee how many at this point. You can find Airbnb, hostels and small hotels in every area of the country.

Requirements?

Resident or first 5 years after specialization, with good level of English. Interest in LGBT+ medicine is a plus

Every participant will have to make a short presentation during Ben Mayer (details to be delivered later on)

Deadline for applications: 14.2.18. Interested? Contact your national exchange coordinator (NEC)

Email for sending your candidates (for NECs only): br.ronen@gmail.com

Dr May Nitzan and Dr Ronen Brand