

Dear VdGamiens :-),

We would like to give you some personal tips, what to do, what to see, where to go and etc. in Prague. But If you want to use Tripadvisor, it is up to you ;-)

How to get to the Preconference venue (Kaiseršteinský Palace)?

By tram no. 12, 15, 20, 22, 23 to Malostranské náměstí; it is opposite to the Starbucks Coffee, across the way - look out for the colorful conference poster on the historic door!

Note there is no air conditioning inside. If the weather is hot, it should be hot also inside, think about the clothes you wear, thank you :-)

Transport

- the public transport is cheap, you can buy tickets: for 24 hours 110 Kč (approx. 4Euro), for 72 hours 310 Kč; it is valid for bus, tram, ferryboat and underground

- the web site for the connection: <http://pid.idos.cz/spojeni/>

- you can also go by foot, everything is close in the center

- taxi: there is special application Taxify, it is something like a taxi and it is very cheap, you can see how your taxi is arriving in the phone, you can pay cash or if you add to the application your card, they take off the money from your card directly.

Beer, wine, drinks, food

- beer is everywhere - there are a lot of pubs - try to find small hidden pubs, usually it's where you'll find the best and cheaper beer
