CALL FOR GOOD GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

Role description

The Good Governance Committee has the duty of upholding good governance in VdGM. This includes being a voice on the application of our bylaws and organisational policies; reviewing and proposing amendments to these same bylaws and organisational policies; as well as providing oversight during the elections process.

Committee composition and duration of term

The committee will consist of five members - two VdGM executive group members and three VdGM council members. The committee is selected during Council Meeting. The members will serve for a 2 year term, however should they be available for only one year, their nomination would still be considered.

Time investment

Time investment depends on situations arising, however as there are five members in the committee, the workload is generally shared. Some time is required around elections - both in terms of reviewing nominations, as well as providing oversight during the election itself.
